

City of Fayetteville Building Safety Division

POLICY & PROCEDURE

Gas Final Inspection

Gas Final inspections may be requested separately from other final inspections.

Gas may be finalized and service approved if the construction is at a point that where sources of air borne dust or fumes will not likely be present during the completion of the project.

Gas permits are not associated with a C O so impact fees will not apply.

Reason: To allow gas service approval before a certificate of occupancy is issued.

Approved By

Building Official