

City of Fayetteville Building Safety Division

POLICY & PROCEDURE

Screen porches requiring guard rails

Screen porches shall meet the same requirements as open porches or decks concerning guard rails and other code requirements. The screen cannot count as protection from falls unless it can be proven to have the same strength as a guard rail system.

Reason: Screen will not prevent an object or person from falling off the porch.

Approved By

Building Official