(A) Appeals to City Council. The following staff interpretations/actions may be appealed to the

Fayetteville Code of Ordinances

City Council by an owner of record of the property in question or an alderman on behalf of a resident of the city:

(1) Zoning and Development Administrator.

(a) Design Overlay District requirements. The decision of the Zoning and Development Administrator not to exempt property from the Design Overlay District requirements as allowed in §161.28(G).

(b) Development Matters. An interpretation or decision of the Zoning and Development Administrator regarding development matters, including subdivisions, large scale developments, parking and loading, and outdoor lighting may appeal.

(2) City Engineer.

(a) Stormwater, Drainage, and Erosion Control requirements. The decision of the City Engineer to issue a violation notice related to these requirements.

(b) Development Matters. An interpretation or decision of the City Engineer regarding development matters, including grading, drainage, water and sanitary sewer systems, and storm drainage systems may appeal.

(c) Floodplain regulations. The decision of the Floodplain Administrator, provided that the City Council shall hear and decide an appeal only when it is alleged there is an error in any requirement, decision, or determination made by the floodplain administrator in the enforcement or administration of Chapter 168.

(3) Urban Forester – Landscape and Tree Preservation and Protection requirements. Decisions of the Urban Forester related to landscape and tree preservation and protection requirements.

(4) Impact Fee Administrator. Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Impact Fee Administrator made in the enforcement or administration of Chapter 159 Fees.

(B) Appeals to the Board of Adjustment. The following interpretations and decisions may be appealed by an owner of record of the property in question or an alderman on behalf of a resident of the city to the Board of Adjustment:

(1) Zoning and Development Administrator - Zoning. An interpretation or decision of the Zoning and Development Administrator regarding zoning matters may appeal.

(2) Building Safety Division Director - Airport Zone. Any person aggrieved, or any taxpayer affected by any decision of the Building Safety Division Director, made in the administration of Airport Zone, Chapter 165, may appeal.

(C) Appeals to the Planning Commission.

(1) Required dedications and improvements.

(a) An owner or developer who is aggrieved by the requirements of the Unified Development Code for land, right-of-way or easement dedications, construction of on-site or off-site improvements, or payments in lieu of any dedication or improvement, which are in excess of the "rough proportionality" of the impact of the development upon the city's infrastructure or services may appeal such requirement to the Planning Commission as a part of the submission of the preliminary plat, large scale development, subdivision, building permit, lot split, development permit, or otherwise within 10 days of notification of such development requirements. The appeal must be presented to the Planning Division in writing and state the grounds, or reasons for the appeal.

(b) The Planning Commission shall determine after public hearing whether the required dedications and improvements meet the "rough proportionality" of the impact of the development on city infrastructure and services. If the requirements are in excess of the "rough proportionality," the Planning Commission is empowered to modify or reduce such requirements to achieve "rough proportionality."

(2) Administrative Approvals.

(a) A resident of the city or an owner/developer who is aggrieved by a decision of the Zoning and Development Administrator regarding development matters that are approved administratively, as required by Chapter 166.02 (C) may appeal the decision to the Planning Commission. The appeal shall be submitted in writing to the Planning Division within 10 days of the final decision. The appeal shall be limited to the applicable approval or denial criteria as follows:

- (i) The development plan is not submitted in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 166 of the Fayetteville Unified Development Code.
 - (ii) The proposed development would violate a city ordinance, a state statute, or a federal statute.
 - (iii) The developer refuses to dedicate the street right-of-way, utility easements or drainage easements required by Chapter 166 of the Fayetteville Unified Development Code.
 - (iv) The proposed development would create or compound a dangerous traffic condition. For the purpose of this section, a dangerous traffic condition shall be construed to mean a traffic condition in which the risk of accidents involving motor vehicles is significant due to factors such as, but not limited to, high traffic volume, topography, or the nature of the traffic pattern.
 - (v) City water and sewer is not readily available to the property within the large scale development or preliminary plat and the developer has made no provision for extending such service to the development.
 - (vi) The developer refused to comply with UDC Ch. 166 pertaining to required on-site and off-site improvements.
- (b) The appellant must include in the letter of appeal the specific code section with which the development application does not comply.
- (c) The Planning Commission shall determine after public hearing whether the interpretation or discretionary decision should be upheld or modified in part or in whole.
- (D) Appeals to the Construction Board of Adjustment and Appeals. When the administrative authority under Chapter 173 shall disapprove an application, or the applicant is aggrieved by the interpretation of the administrative authority, the applicant may appeal the decision to the Construction Board of Adjustment and Appeals.
